UNUSUAL STORY OF "THE CRADLE"

Owing to financial difficulties, the marital life of Dr. Robert Harvey and his wife, Margaret, is ruffled. Both are devoted to their little daughter, Doris. Dr. Harvey is called to attend Lola Forbes, a wealthy, unscrupulous young woman, who is fascinated by and sets her cap for him. The arrival of Harvey's mother-in-law at his home for a prolonged stay, causes him to seek diversion in the company of Lola, whose illness has now become a mere pretext. One night Margaret, answering an emergency call, phones the hospital where Harvey is supposedly in attendance and finds that he has not been there all evening.

Upon his return, her suspicions are confirmed when she sees the wrist watch Lola has given Harvey as a birthday present. Courtney Webster, the lawyer handling Margaret's mother's affairs, and one of her former suitors, hearing of Harvey's affair with Lola, again revives his suit with Margaret. One afternoon while Webster is driving Margaret home from a shopping trip, they see Harvey and Lola together in his machine. The Harveys agree to a divorce. Harvey marries Lola and Margaret yields to Webster's pleas and marries him. The court decrees that the child shall spend six months of each year with each parent. Webster grows to dislike the child Doris, and Lola treats her so harshly that she becomes seriously ill. Torrance Theatre, Wednesday, August 9.
